

Middle School Summer Reading Grades 6-8 Option #2

Students will select a novel of their choice. Students are required to get their own copy of the chosen novel on their own, students may locate the book through the Bergen County library system. Students will create a book review to share with their peers and also complete the writing assignment. We encourage you to choose a book that you are excited about reading, maybe a biography of an influential person, a nonfiction book about a favorite activity or sport, or a mystery with exciting twists and turns. The possibilities are endless!
