

Week of Respect

October 2nd - October 6th

Hasbrouck Heights Middle School Presents

"Week of Respect" Theme Days!

Monday, October 2nd

"Put Bullying to Bed!"

Students will wear their favorite pajamas to school because EVERYONE should be comfortable in school!

Tuesday, October 3rd

"Bullying is in the Past"

Students will dress in clothes from their favorite decade to show that bullying is a thing of the past. (Ex. 80's outfit)

Wednesday, October 4th

Being a Good Friend is No Sweat!

Students will wear their favorite sweatshirt and/or sweatpants to school.

Thursday, October 5th

"Be someone's SUPER HERO"

Students will wear their favorite superhero t-shirt or other apparel!

Friday, October 6th

"EVERYONE Counts!" - School Spirit

EVERYONE will wear BLACK and ORANGE to school!

Following Week:

Wednesday, October 11th

Single-Session Day

Character Education Day (Grades 6 & 7)

PSAT Day (Grade 8)

Students will wear BLACK and ORANGE to School.

HEIGHTS: Where tradition and innovation take FLIGHT

